A Celebration of Pennsylvania Dutch Folk-life 2020

We invite you to apply to the annual Kutztown Festival Quilt Sale and Competition. An application is enclosed. It is our goal to judge, display and sell, all quilts that are submitted and comply with the rules. The following requirements are a guideline for you to follow as you begin preparation for the 2020 Festival. We welcome your participation and success!

- Pre-registration: All quilters must pre-register quilts. Complete the application and return, before 4/01/20, to make arrangements for delivery and acceptance at the Kutztown Festival Quilt Barn.
- All bed sized quilts are considered entries in the competition*. See the chart for size and pricing guidelines. All quilters must register at least one bed sized quilt in order to submit wall hangings, crib/baby and throws to the regular sale and competition.
- The Kutztown Festival reserves the right to not accept quilts into the sale/competition for any reason of quality or salability. All decisions by the judges, the quilt sale director or festival management are final.
- The Kutztown Festival assumes full responsibility for theft, loss or damage while quilts are in the Festival's possession.
- Pickup of unsold items will be scheduled by the quilt barn director based on information on the application. No Sunday pickups. Quilts returned by UPS or USPS will be at the quilter's expense.

QUILT COMPETITION: All bed sized quilts are considered for judging in the quilt competition. Quilts are judged on the basis of use of fabric, color, quality of workmanship, salability, as well as interpretation of traditional and original designs. 2020 RULES

- Review the included chart for size suggestions & styles of quilts.
- It is expected that all quilts submitted to the Kutztown Festival Sale & Competition will be substantially the work of the person submitting the quilt. That person will have a significant role in the selection, design, piecing & completion of the quilt. At registration all quilters will certify that their quilts are MADE IN AMERICA.
- All fabric is to be pre-washed. All fabrics release dye & shrink at different rates. Avoid complaints and returns because of damage. All fabrics will be 100% COTTON. Poly-cottons & flannels are not acceptable.
- Batting: Polyester, cotton and other suitable new batting will be accepted & should be noted at registration.
- Binding: Should be made from bias cut fabrics that coordinate with the body of the quilt. Mitered corners are preferred. Tops or backing wrapped as an edging will not be accepted.
- Hanging Sleeves: on wall hangings (required), throws & crib/baby (optional) must be a separate fabric constructed as a tube, minimum width 4" wide (to allow for a pole) and long enough to cover the width of the wall hanging etc. Tab tops and bindings folded down will not be accepted.
- Clean Quilts: Quilts with spots, stains, fuzz & threads trapped in batting and other damages will not be accepted. The festival staff will inspect each quilt at registration and have the right to reject a quilt that is defective. Quilts cannot be cleaned on the registration floor and/or cleaned and returned at a later time.
- Measuring: Quilts should be spread flat & measured for width and length. Scalloped quilts will be measured between the two shortest points.
- Labels: Pinned to each quilt submitted will be a small label with the following information: quilter's price, width & length plus title/color of quilt. This is necessary to keep registration moving!!!
- Hand Quilting & Machine Quilting: Both are acceptable. It is expected that machine quilting will show an artistic contribution to the body of the quilt.
- Signing Quilts: It is the policy of the Festival that quilts will not exhibit the name & location of the quilter. Initials & dates of completion will be accepted.

- Auction pieces or quilts of inferior workmanship, design and/or poor quality of fabric.
